Learn about Membership Benefits including:

- Member Meetings - Participation in regular MSC monthly member meetings (attendance 300-450 per month).
- Committees - The vibrant committee structure consisting of 26 different groups provides an avenue for members of your company to accelerate their learning curve of the industry, the issues that confront it and how the industry goes about solving those issues and establishing a strong working relationship with industry personnel.
- Meet the MSC Board events – Exclusive member-only event highlighting a Board member company each month with executive management, operations and purchasing personnel. Get insight into strategic direction, operations and “How to do business” with the featured board member company.
- MSC Member Portal – Member-only access to the MSC Member portal where the committees collaborate and share industry information, recommended practices, upcoming meetings and other MSC events.
- SHALE INSIGHT™ 2013 Conference – The nation’s leading forum for public-private dialogue on shale development. Be a part of the shale gas industry’s premier conference and interact with senior executives, government officials and the experts driving the world’s most innovative and sophisticated shale plays. Members receive special rates on registration, exhibit booths and advanced information on sponsorship and advertising opportunities.
- Associate Member Directory - The MSC publishes an annual, complimentary directory of Associate members which includes a full page advertisement highlighting the company, its products and services.

Did you know?

- The MSC represents 43 Board member companies from the major producer and midstream companies operating in the Marcellus and Utica shale basins.
- More than 96% of the natural gas in Pennsylvania is produced by MSC member companies. These are essentially the same companies who are operating in West Virginia, Ohio and other areas of the basin.
- With approximately 250 Associate members, the industry’s supply chain is broadly represented.
