

Pennsylvania Department of Environmental Protection Mechanical Well Integrity Training

Friday, November 8, 2013

The Pennsylvania Department of Environmental Protection (PADEP) and Marcellus Shale Coalition are pleased to offer to all oil and gas industry stakeholders the opportunity to attend a Mechanical Well Integrity Training session.

Continuing Education Credits Available!

The Mechanical Well Integrity Training will provide operators with pertinent information for recording and submitting quarterly well integrity data for operating oil and gas wells as required by regulation under the mechanical integrity assessment program provided by 75 Pa Code Section 78.88. The training will feature an overview of form preparation while using several well-type examples and accompanying construction schematics for reference.
